

4th Annual Labour Department
HIV/AIDS Awareness Competition 2012
in the form of a Poetry Competition

This competition is open to all officers of the Public Service.

Theme: "It's Time To Kiss Stigma and Discrimination Goodbye"

Criteria:

- the content of the poem should be based on the theme
- typed on A4 or 8 ½ x 11 paper
- the name of the participant should not be on the poem
- individuals must attach a completed entry form
- participants will be notified by email or telephone (where no email address is available) of receipt of entries
- envelopes should be addressed to Ms. Nicole Hinds or Ms. Nia Salankey

Awards:

- 🏆 Department of winning entry: challenge trophy and winner's trophy
- 🏆 1st place: individual trophy and weekend staycation for 2 at Divi Southwinds
- 🏆 2nd place: individual trophy and gift certificate from Columbian Emeralds valued at $350.00
- 🏆 3rd place: individual trophy and Atlantis Submarine night dive
- 🏆 Each participant: token of participation

The winners will be presented with their awards during Love Safely Week (13th to 17th February, 2012) at an award ceremony at the Warrens Office Complex.

Winners photo and poem may be published in the "Challenge to Change" magazine. This information may also be forwarded to the International Labour Organisation and the Government Information Service for possible publication in other media.

All poems remain the property of the Labour Department.

Entries should be submitted no later than Friday 27th January, 2012 to Labour Department, 2nd Floor East, Warrens Office Complex, Warrens, St. Michael.